VIRTUAL DRYLAND MAKES A RETURN

As the Covid-19 restrictions tighten up again, all in-person dryland classes were required to end by Public Health Order. This, however, is not a problem for Sungod! Well versed in the world of virtual off-ice classes through Zoom, the skaters and coaches have easily adjusted back to this routine and are continuing to persevere. Within the week a regular virtual off-ice schedule had been created and implemented for all groups that had registered dryland. As things are constantly evolving this year, it is amazing to see how all the Sungod skaters are able to adapt to all the new circumstances that continue to be presented to them!
